REFLECTION

Voting

OK, with the Nov. 8 election achingly approaching, the better heading for these thoughts is "How to Vote From A Catholic Perspective." Here are some resources:

Exhibit #1: Pope Francis, on a recent return flight from Azerbaijan, journalists asked him about our coming American election. While previously signaling problems with Hillary Clinton's support for abortion and Donald Trump's Mexican wall as "un-Christian," Pope Francis said: "You ask me a question that describes a difficult choice because, according to you, there are difficulties with one and difficulties with the other."

When pressed he replied" "During political campaigns, I never say a word. The people are sovereign. I would only say, study the proposals well, pray and choose in conscience."

Exhibit #2: Therefore do not opt out; but as a responsible citizen, VOTE.

Exhibit #3: Catholic social teaching, in expressing the mission given us by Jesus Christ, offers solid principles that look beyond the sometimes emotion-laden vitriol and paralyzing polarization of this presidential and other political campaigns. The U.S. Bishops for over 30 years have offered a distilled resource for Catholics to contribute in shaping the moral character of our society. The guidance document is called Faithful Citizenship (accessed at www.usscb,org/issues-and-action). In it, the bishops state, "As Catholics, we should be guided more by our moral convictions than by our attachment to any political or interest group… Catholic voters should use Catholic teaching to examine candidate's' positions on issues and should consider candidates' integrity, philosophy, and performance."

Exhibit #4: The four pillar principles of the Church's social doctrine "include the dignity of the human person, the common good (My words: the rights and responsibilities that allow all of us to flourish, including being sensitive stewards of God's creation and the poor), subsidiarity (my words: acting at the local level rather than bigger is better), and solidarity (a moral test: how we treat the weakest among us)." The bishops go on to say, "Rightly understood, this ethic does not treat all issues as morally equivalent; nor does it reduce Catholic teaching to one or two issues."

Exhibit #5: Before voting examine a "second opinion" that expands my inadequate (and slanted bias?) remarks by closely studying and praying over the summary of our bishop's reflections inserted in this and next week's bulletin.

Please read the bishop's wisdom so you can vote as thoughtful and responsible Catholics.

In the Lord's Blessing,

Fr. Tom Libera

Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.
2 Corinthians 9:6-8

ELECTION PRAYER FOR LIFE

O God, we acknowledge You today as Lord, not only of individuals, but of nations and governments. We thank You for the privilege of being able to organize ourselves politically and of knowing that political loyalty does not have to mean disloyalty to You. We thank You for Your law. We thank You for the opportunity that each election puts before us, to exercise our solemn duty, not only to vote but to influence countless others to vote and to vote correctly. Lord, we pray that Your people may be awakened. Let them realize that while politics is not their salvation, their response to You requires that they be politically active. Awaken Your people to know that they are not called to be a sect fleeng the world, but rather a community of faith renewing the world. Awaken them that the same hands lifted up to You in prayer are the hands that choose their candidates in the voting booth; that the same eyes that read Your Word are the eyes that read the names on the ballot; and that they do not cease to be Christians when they enter the voting booth. Awaken Your people to a commitment to justice, to the sanctity of marriage and the family, to the dignity of each individual human life, and to the truth that human rights begin when human lives begin and not one moment later. Lord, we rejoice today that we are citizens of Your kingdom. May that make us all the more committed to being faithful citizens on earth. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
