Gospel:	John 9:1-41

REFLECTION
4th Sunday of Lent Year C

Jesus teaches about forgiveness in the parable of the Prodigal Son.

"Hey, that's not fair!" How many times have we heard this spoken in our family? Jesus wants us to understand that this is not how it is with God's mercy and forgiveness. God offers his love to all of us in abundance. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God's love for us, generous beyond measure in his love for both of his sons. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 15:1-3,11-32. Talk about why the older brother is jealous of the younger brother. Make a family commitment to always say kind words and phrases to one another with greater frequency. Pray together the "Lord's Prayer, every day as a family before going to bed, and reconcile with one another.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS THROUGH D0OWNTOWN CHICAGO

All members of St. Hilary are invited to the 14th Annual Way of the Cross around downtown Chicago on Good Friday, April 19th. During the procession, we will follow the cross silently through the busy city, bringing the memory of the Passion of the Lord to life, with stops that include gospel readings, meditations, and choir music.

We will gather at 8:30 am at Daley Plaza (Dearborn/ Washington) and conclude at Holy Name Cathedral around 11:45 am, stopping at the Veterans Memorial on the river walk and on Michigan Avenue in front of the Wrigley Building. The schedule has been planned to conclude at a time which will not overlap with your own parish services.

As you know, the U.S. Senate recently failed to pass the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act - legislation that prohibits infanticide by ensuring that a child born alive following an attempted abortion would receive the same degree of care to preserve his or her life and health as would be given to any other child born alive at the same gestational age.

While efforts are underway to move this legislation forward, what is also greatly needed is an effort of awareness and prayer.

Jesus, Lord of life, transform the hearts of our elected leaders to recognize that infanticide is wrong and must not be tolerated. We especially pray for our own senators who voted against this bill. Open their hearts and minds to recognize and defend the precious gift of every precious life. Amen.

* Fourth Sunday in Lent

The ministry of Jesus ‘ healing is very important. Today we need healing in our Church and in our world. It is so important that we once again celebrate this in our church to heal us bodily, spiritually and as a community. We call God to heal the pain and help us to forgive, to heal, and to move on.

OUR FORTY DAY LENTEN JOURNEY

THANK YOU FOR YOUR LIVING STEWARDSHIP

We appreciate your generosity. Thank you to those who showed up this week. If we can keep our attendance over 900 people, that will be fantastic! And once again, we call on you to increase your offertory donation if you haven't done so by $2-$5 a week. This increase will help us in our evangelization ministry, allow us to offer Religious Education scholarships for both children and parents, support tuition for our deaconate student, and provide pamphlets and other literature to sustain your walk with God. Let us make JESUS come alive in the lives of our community. Can you please help us?

Thank you to our 7 new Give Central donors. You heard our call and you responded. We encourage our parishioners to use our online giving portals with ACH or Give Central (https://www.givecentral.org/login). Interested? Please give us a call at the Parish Office (773)561-3474.

We are proud of all of you giving to the church in ore ways than one. Know that you are part of bringing more people to a life with God.

A LIFE OF SERVICE IS A LIFE WITH CHRIST!

Living Discipleship Through Spirit, Gifts, and Service

During these 40 days of Lent, as part of our stewardship, let us meditate on 5the seven last words Jesus Christ uttered while crucified - on the verge of death, bettered, bloodied, and ridiculed. A sinless savior offered for the atonement of humanity then, now, and in the years to come. These seven last words were traditionally compiled from the four gospels - Mark & Matthews's account of the "cry of dereliction," Luke and John's account of Jesus' spoken words. Three reasons why we need to contemplate their importance are: 1) what they teach us about Jesus; 2) what they teach us about His Father; and 3) what they teach us about ourselves.

This Season's Stewardship Of Time, Talent, & Treasure Salute:

Thank you, Men's Club, for hosting the Corned Beef Dinner / Silent Auction and the Fish Fry Dinner. Through your efforts, our Parish enjoyed a social event for parishioners and friends.

THANK YOU !!!

FINAL WORDS

Jesus' Last words from the Cross #3

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home. John 19:25-27

In the above Gospel of John, women had played an active role in Jesus Christ's ministry. It is also known that women during that time were second class citizens; but in Christ's circle, women were leaders like men, women financially supported Jesus' ministry (Luke 8:1-3), a woman was the first missionary to the Samaritans or Gentiles (John 4:28-29), a woman anointed Jesus with oil (Matthew 26:6-13), women stood at the cross when the other disciples fled except for John (John 19:25), women discovered the empty tomb on Easter morning (Mark 16:1-8), a woman first proclaimed the resurrection to others (John 20:11-18); but most importantly, it was Mary in her Magnificat who accepted to be the God-bearer (Luke 1:38). Mary recognized her role in the redemptive plan of God to bring to flesh salvation for the world through Jesus' life and ministry.

John was also tasked to take care of Mary, as we are all tasked to take care of widows, the orphaned, and each other. Jesus asked us to love our neighbor, and to care for those He cares about as if they were our own family .

Jesus considers the Church as His bride. Through the ages, the Church has seen dark valleys in its history. It is only through the committed people like Mary and John that the Church is continually saved.

Lord, thank You for Mary Your mother. Her pain, her love, her courage, her witness transcends time. Help me hear the calling of Your son, Jesus, to John and to hear it as my own calling. May I be caring to my parents and my children, and may I see those who have no parents or children as my own family, following Your example of loving all.

LAETARE SUNDAY

The fourth, or middle, Sunday in Lent is so called from the first words of the Introit of the Latin Mass, "Laetare Jerusalem" (Rejoice, O Jerusalem). Special signs of joy are permitted on this day (candles, flowers, music) to encourage the faithful in their course through the season of penance. Rose-colored (rather than purple) vestments are also allowed, symbolizing the joys of this life mingled with a certain amount of sadness.

Did you enjoy the March Fish Fry? Did you miss it? Well, you've got a second chance coming on Friday, April 12th! Be sure to mark your calendar! More details next week.

Please remember in your prayers those in the hospital or recovering at home, those suffering with a terminal illness, our shut-ins and those in nursing homes, our relatives and friends who are ill, especially:

Leota Grunninger, Peter Mikkelsen, Madeline Wellner, Ursula Schnetzer, Theresa, Katherine & Maria Kim, Linda Newton, Joan & Phil Cowen, Antonio Sarmiento, Rick Omandam, Andrew Wehling, Frank R. Krapowski, Patricia Jalove, Fred (Jay) Austin, Dina Nicolini, Belinda Lacson-dela Fuentes, Catherine O'Connor Sugrue

Also, Please Remember Our Troops In Your Prayers.

RCIA
A Journey in Faith

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), is a process developed by the Catholic Church for prospective converts to Catholicism who are gradually introduced to aspects of Catholic beliefs and practices.

Rite of Election

After the Rite of Acceptance which takes place in the parish, this Rite includes the Welcoming Rite, the Rite of Election of Catechumens (those not baptized), and the Call to Continuing Conversion of Candidates Who are Preparing for Confirmation and/or the Eucharist or Reception of those baptized in another faith into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. On March 10th, our candidates Carlito Afuang & Ethan Donates, attended a special liturgy at Holy Name Cathedral with Bishop Mark Bartosic. They are now considered "the Elect".

The Scrutinies

These very special rites are celebrated on the middle three Sundays of Lent at liturgies where the Elect are present. The Elect are those in our midst who are preparing for Baptism. In order to inspire in them a desire for purification and redemption by Christ, the Elect are instructed gradually about the mystery of sin. There are special prayers prayed for them at these Scrutiny Masses.

First Scrutiny
3rd Sunday of Lent

Gospel: "The Woman at the Well." Their Spirit is filled with Christ the Redeemer who is the Living Water.

Second Scrutiny
4th Sunday of Lent

Gospel: "The Man Born Blind." They are introduced to Christ, the Light of the World.

Third Scrutiny
5th Sunday of Lent

Gospel: "The Raising of Lazarus from the Dead" They learn of the Resurrection and the Life.

"For I, the Lord your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you'" (Isaiah 41:13)

Have you noticed any change since you've been using your prayer rock to remind you to ask God's help with your struggles and those of others?

IN THE WORDS OF THE SAINTS

Lord Jesus, in Your mercy heal us; in Your love and tenderness remake us; in Your compassion bring grace and forgiveness. May Your love prepare us for the beauty of heaven.

++ St. Anselm of Canterbury ++

Lord, grant that I may always allow myself to be guided by You, follow Your plans, and perfectly accomplish Your holy will. Grant that in all things, great and small, today and all the days of my life, I may do whatever You require of me.

++ St. Teresa of Avila ++

Lord, as I read Your words, let me hear You speaking. As I reflect on each page, let me see Your image. As I seek to put Your precepts into practice, let my heart be filled with joy.

++ St. Gregory Nazianzen ++

O God, open our eyes to know You and to place our hope in You, who lift up the humble and lay low the mighty. Help us and rescue all those who are in trouble.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Friends,

Thank you for keeping me in your prayers during the recent Meeting on the Protection of Minors in the Church, convened by the Holy Father in Rome. Your support gave me great hope and encouragement, and I would like to provide you with an update on what was accomplished and our next critical steps.

This meeting set the direction of the entire global Church on the question of child safety. Our firm resolve and the actions we will take are a direct result of hearing the testimony of victims/survivors throughout the meeting. Their unflinching witness moved the hearts of the participants and the world and led us to recommit to a common mission of making the Church a safe place for all, achieved by taking personal responsibility, holding bishops accountable, and practicing transparency.

The nine talks over three days were given by presenters approved by the Holy Father. Each of the speakers pointed out the failures of bishops to act responsibly and described the damage done by their lack of accountability and transparency. Pope Francis built on what was said in the various talks by making it clear at the end of the Mass on Sunday that the Church's agenda in protecting children must be proactive not reactive or defensive. He insisted that the Church will spare no effort to hold abusers accountable and will not tolerate cover-ups.

The all-out effort for which the pope has called will continue to build over time and will be marked by a commitment to ongoing learning and improving, particularly by listening to victims/survivors of abuse.

Four concrete steps were announced at the end of the meeting:

1. The imminent publication of a motu proprio by the pope, providing rules and regulations to safeguard minors and vulnerable adults within the Vatican City State;
2. The distribution of a "vademecum" (or rulebook) to bishops around the world, standardizing guidelines so church leaders everywhere take on this task in a united way and explaining their juridical and pastoral duties and responsibilities regarding protecting children;
3. Recognizing that the global Church is marked by great culture diversity and unique regional challenges, task forces of competent experts that are culturally sensitive and regionally representative will be organized to assist bishops' conferences that may lack the necessary resources or expertise to fully address the issue of safeguarding minors and dealing with abuse;
4. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith is responsible for approving the norms of each bishops' conference.

With this letter, I invite you to view the major talks, prayer services with testimonies of victims/survivors, the penitential ceremony and Mass, all of which were streamed live so the entire world could follow this event. The videos and talks are posted on the Vatican's dedicated website at pbc2019.org.

You can be sure of a place in my prayers, and I ask that you keep victims/survivors, our Church, and our community in your prayers.

Sincerely yours,

Archbishop of Chicago
